Dear Miss Mannwaring,

Here is the five dollars with many thanks to the kind creditor. Mr ?(I never got his name right) got me safely into my train, and I slept like a log.

I am very depressed to-day because they have just started building a factory outside my window which, I fear is going to take away my view of the harbour and the Bridge.

Thank you very much for the grand time you gave me at Wellsley; I hope it won't be my last visit.

yours sincerely

L. H. Allen
